Public Scoping Session

Thursday

June 2, 2016

7:30 P.M.

- Special Counsel Lynch stated that Clovewood's attorney was asked to extend the time for the co-lead agencies to go over the scoping documents from June 4 to June 30; however applicant's counsel refused to give the very brief extension.
- Special Counsel Lynch stated that the scoping document has been presented to the co-lead agencies before this meeting, and we have looked at this document from a professional viewpoint. The co-lead agencies have had the full opportunity to look at it and provide their comments on it well before tonight's meeting.
- Deputy Mayor Hickey commented regarding cultural resources that there is a cemetery located on the property. It is critical to identify the location and treat it in a dignified way. Please make sure that it is incorporated into the document.
- Planning Board Member Kimball asked about the southwestern exit location and exactly where is it located onto Route 208?
- Clovewood attorney Barshov stated that it will be clarified in the EIS to make sure the location of the exits are clearly delineated in the documents.
- Resolution No. () Resolution of the Village Board of Trustees of the Village of South Blooming regarding adopting the annexed Scope of Issues for the Clovewood Project as presented and as amended and set forth in the comments made by the public and the board members. Motion to approve made by Trustee Mullany and seconded by Deputy Mayor Hickey. 4Ayes, 1 Absent – Trustee Sas.

➤ Public Comments

- Sonia Ayala - stated that the following should be looked at transportation, traffic, water and sewer and environment.
- Brian Bohan - stated that there isn't enough water which would need to be addressed. Traffic – we do not need additional cars, and the environment issues need to be addressed.
- Scott Morrice - Fire Chief of Village of South Blooming Grove. Stated that Kiryas Joel cannot ask to cover the fire department here in VSBG. Kiryas Joel needs to cover their own district. There is not enough water to be able to fight a fire for this type of development.
- Edie Johnson - a study of the viewshed needs to be done to make sure the Schunnemunk Mountain is preserved. Maps would be helpful.
